

Production Employee (m/f/d/a)

Your responsibilities:

- Assembly and component placement for electronic assemblies and devices
- Operation and monitoring of production and testing equipment
- Conducting simple functional and visual inspections
- Wiring work on assemblies using technical documentation
- Soldering work (manual or machine-based) according to work instructions
- Packaging and labeling of products
- Assisting in compliance with quality, safety, and ESD guidelines
- Documenting production steps according to specifications
- General tasks in the production area

We offer:

- Job security and competitive compensation with profit-sharing
- Structured onboarding
- A pleasant work environment with short decision-making processes
- 30 days of vacation (up to 33 days depending on length of service)
- Company pension plan
- Regular working hours (38-hour workweek) and paid leave in certain life situations
- Opportunities for continuing education and career development
- JobRad / Deutschlandticket
- In-house wellness programs
- Company and team events (summer parties, Christmas party)

Your profile:

- Ideally, vocational training in electronics or another technical field
- Also suitable for career changers with experience in production, assembly, or electrical manufacturing
- Technical understanding and manual dexterity
- A meticulous, reliable, and organized work style
- A strong commitment to quality and a sense of responsibility
- Ability to work well in a team and a high level of motivation

The best time to apply is now! Apply at: bewerbung@epsa.de